

Gloria Jean Williams

October 15, 1957 - November 30, 2012

GLORIA JEAN WILLIAMS, beloved daughter of the late Isaih and Dorothy Mae Williams, was born on October 15, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. She peacefully departed this life on November 30, 2012.

She received her education at Lake Clifton High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Naturally inclined to technology, Gloria worked for both the Western Electric Company and Gould. Her love of technology thrived for the remainder of her life, long after her employment with these companies. She was the family videographer, collector of music, and fix of broken equipment. Gloria could fix (or was willing to try fixing!) just about anything.

Gloria was deeply loving and sweet. Her full beautiful smile was always ready, those signature Kearney cheekbones proudly on display. When she was joyful, her laughter pealed like bells; you could hear it even when you weren't in the same room. A soft spoken woman, she exuded kindness. She longed for nothing more strongly than to be loved and to show love. Spending time with her family was one of her favorite things to do and she appreciated the rich legacy of her family's history. Gloria loved the Lord and spoke often of how she placed all her trust in Him.

She leaves to mourn: her brothers, Calvin and Marcus Williams of Baltimore, Maryland; her sister Magnolia Williams-Ingram of Wadesboro, North Carolina;her nephews, Calvin and Keron Williams of Baltimore, Maryland;her nieces, Ashley and Cortney Williams of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of other relatives and friend.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
