

Goldie H. Davis

August 27, 1912 - May 25, 2007

Goldie Mae Harvey Davis, daughter of Walter P. Harvey and Viola Franklin Harvey, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on August 27, 1912. She was the eldest of four children. Goldie attended Douglass and Dunbar Senior High Schools. She was married and divorced at an early age, becoming a loving single parent to her two sons, William and Ralph. It was not until her younger son married did she wed the late Benjamin F. Davis. She accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior at an early age at the Asbury M. E. Church, which later evolved into the Christ United Methodist Church. Goldie sang on the Young People's Choir, the Sanctuary Choir, the Women's Chorus, and the Gospel Chorus. From 1942 until 1989 she was an active member until poor vision compelled her to sit in the pew and listen. She supported all church activities. Goldie loved her church where many of the young people called her Mrs. Goldie. Despite age related physical infirmities, Goldie remained alert and cheerful. On Friday, May 25, 2007 this valiant servant went to be with the Lord. Goldie is survived by: a son, Ralph Ringer Johnson; sister, Florence Blackmon of Indianapolis, Indiana; four grandchildren, Kelvin Johnson, Ralph Johnson (Paula), Lynne Johnson Kee and Vincent Johnson (Dorothy); four great-grandchildren, Jessica Kee, Jennifer Kee, Willie Kee and Kelvin Johnson, Jr.; loving cousins, Irene Cannady, Sarah Tiller and Phyllis Smith; and a host of nieces and nephews.

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Jesus Christ said: "For just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to." John 5:21 May you receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and these loving Bible promises. And may draw close to the maker of them Jehovah God and his son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##
