“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy in the loss of your loved one How comforting to know that Almighty God has not only the power but the desire to reunite us with our loved ones by means of the resurrection hope Jesus spoke of in the Bible at John 5 : 21,28,29

D Allen - November 22, 2016 at 06:05 AM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Cherish the fond memories of your dear loved one. Have faith in the Kingdom Jesus taught his early followers to pray for at Matthew 6:9. This Kingdom will do away with our enemy, death, once and for all. Then we can look forward to another important action, the resurrection of millions of dead loved ones who have the prospect of growing to perfection under God's Messianic King. What great family reunions lay ahead. Until then let us run this race for life with endurance.

“ May your hearts soon be filledwith wonderful memories of joyfultimes together as you celebrate her life (Philippians 4:7).

“ To the Hobson family. You and Goldie were the first neighbors we met when we moved in 3 years ago. We quickly became friends. Ms. Goldie was the security for our home and always looked out for our children. Our kids still ask about her today. No more pain and suffering. She will be with the Lord when He returns for us and we will see her again. We are here for you and we love you. We will continue to keep you and the kids in our prayers. From your next door neighbors, The Turner's.
