

Goldie I. Morris

January 25, 1937 - May 26, 2020

Goldie Isabelle Pinder-Morris, the daughter of the late Leroy S. Pinder and Catherine L. DaShields-Pinder/Taylor also the stepdaughter of the late Charles E. Taylor was born January 25, 1937 and she received her wings on May 26, 2020. Goldie was born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland and was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System.

Goldie was the mother of four children: James J. Pinder, April L. Branch, Dorothy Pinder-Wright and Robin Pinder-Kittles. She had many trades in her life, including working in hotel services, Hospitals/Nursing Homes, but the one gift that made her happy was cooking and she found her spot at Pimlico Race Course cooking for jockeys, security guards, trainers, owners, news reporters and anyone who got the word out to go see Mamma Nikii if your hungry...she devoted 40 plus years to this and was known as "Mamma Nikki" to all. During this time she met and married The late Frank Morris.

Momma Nikkii was known for speaking her mind. She would scold you in one breath starting with Number 1!!, and never getting to Number 2. Then say "Baby I've got chicken, greens and potatoes," with her favorite saying, "Get a plate cause it's Saying a Taste!"

She loved dancing, singing, gardening and cooking big family meals especially during the holidays. She enjoyed her favorite cocktail, Early Times

(ET) and would surely let you know "Hold your horses and don't bother me in here today!" She loved her old time movies, Westerns and her Wrestling, trips to the dollar store and especially twisty donuts and ice cream. Goldie was a member of Connection Point Church, Baltimore, Maryland and loved her church family.

Goldie was preceded in death by her parents; grandson, Dana M. Lynch; her oldest sister, Carleen Y. Wilkes... Hun Bun.

She leaves to cherish her life and love: her baby sister, Kathryn Lewis (Kitty); 4 children, James (Jim Jones), April (Cook-Cook), Dorothy (Dottie) and Robin (Buttons); two sons-in-law, Antone Wright and Clyde Kittles; 5 grandchildren, Teonna, Jennifer, Derrell, Branden and Madison; 5 great-grandchildren, De'von, Christopher, Caiden, Naveen and Nikou; her one and only niece, Michele Parker; 3 nephews, Michael P., Michael S., and Mitchell S.; 2 great-nieces, Jeanene (Nean) and Danielle (Pie); 2 great-nephews, Kevin (John) and Tony Jr. (Man); her furry, four legged friends Kai, Poe and Diamond; her special friend of many years, Shirley Gee; and a host of other relatives and friends.
