

Gordon Giles

September 13, 1954 - November 4, 2002

Gordon Giles, Jr., (8) of Dollie M. Giles and the late Gordon Giles, was born on September 13, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on November 4, 2002 at Good Samaritan Hospital. He received his education at Paul Laurence Dunbar High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Gordon was a former material handler and Tow Mow Driver. He was also a certified a Mechanic an excellent technician. Gordon could repair almost anything. Gordon was known as "Slim," because of his stature, or "Poochy," a nickname given to him by his great-aunt Sadie, who was unable to pronounce Gordon. His energy came from his love for Pandora McDaniels, whom he loved so much that his pet name for her was "Pan Pan," because calling her once was not enough. Goodness and service to others characterize greatness, and Slim was a great man. He made numerous friends wherever he went. Those who were fortunate enough to know him considered his friendship their good fortune. He gave without desire or thanks. Poochy was loved and admired for his sweet and generous disposition, abundant sense o humor and because he believed in sharing his last with those less fortunate. Slim leaves to mourn: his mother, Dollie Mae Giles; four brothers, Tyrone Giles, Johnny Giles, Antonio Andrew Giles and Donnell Giles; three sisters, Darlene Giles, and Pamela Hudley; his girlfriend, Pandora McDaniels; nieces, nephews, a host of other relative s and friends

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
