His hobbies were fishing and watching television. He had a green thumb. “Chickie” was a music lover. He had a great sense of humor. He was very kind hearted and loved children. “Chickie” had a strong work ethic and was very generous. He enjoyed being in good company with family and friends. “Chickie” leaves to mourn: wife, Angela Maddox; two daughters, Shenice McElveen and Dynisha McElveen; mother, Nannie Lou McElveen; father, Fred McElveen; four adopted children, Keith, Valerie, Melvin and Christopher; four brothers, David, Tony, Bruce and Brian; three sisters, Laverne, Frederica and Michelle; fourteen grandchildren and one on the way; two sons-in-law, two brothers-in-law, six sisters-in-law; a grandmother, Delores Bowman; three friends, Hawkins, Rome and Gerdie; and an extremely large host of nieces, nephews and cousins to cherish his memory. Two grandmothers preceded him in death, Lola Jenkins and Barzella McElveen; mother-in-law, Christine Smith; and father-in-law, Clarence Gross. FROM MY HEART It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn’t go alone, For part of us went with you, the day God called you home. Death knocks at someone's door each and every day, We know we must answer it, there is no running away. God watched you as you suffered, He knew you had your share, He gently closed your eyes and took you in His care. To some you may be forgotten, to others a part of the past, But to us who have loved and lost you, your memory will always last. Rest In Peace Your Daughter
