

Gordon McQuaige Sr.

July 12, 1945 - December 1, 2015

GORDON CLAUDY MCQUAIGE, SR. son of the late Albert McQuaige, Sr. and Daisy McQuaige was born on July 12, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on December 1, 2015 at Sinai Hospital after a brief illness .

Gordon was a God-Fearing man who enjoyed reading his Bible. He was a very wise happy. Outgoing, naturally funny, talkative and affectionate man.

In 1965, he was joined in Holy Matrimony to Doris V. Robinson. She preceded him in death.

He fathered four children Lisa, Wanda, Gordon Jr. and Antuan, He loved his family and provided them with the necessities of life and more. He was a strong proponent them for self-employment. He was an astute and successful businessman for many years of his life. He also instilled those same principles in his children . Gordon would always say “he would sell peanuts on a corner for five cents a bag before he would work for someone else.” He was a strong disciplinarian with his children who are now grateful for the wisdom that he imparted; as it has served them well in their adult life.

At an early age, Gordon became an entrepreneur of many businesses:lounge/bar and restaurant, liquor and grocery stores, His most successful establishment was “Gordies Tower Inn” where he was the first in Baltimore City to have a lighted disco floor. He was then invited to make a guest appearance on Channel 13 "Evening magazine New".

He leaves to cherish his memory; devoted children, Lisa McQuaige, Wanda McQuaige-Ogar and husband Ipuole; Gordon McQuaige, Jr. and wife Simone; Antuan McQuaige and wife Jaquetta; five grandchildren, three great-grandchildren; loving siblings, Leatrice Meggett, Albert McQuaige, Jr. Janice Wimbush, Charles McQuaige (who preceded him in death, Ralph McQuaige and a host of nephews, nieces, cousin, and special friends.
