

Grace Conigland

February 24, 1917 - January 11, 2005

Grace Conigland, daughter of the late James and Blanche Dangerfield, was born February 24, 1917 in Baltimore, Maryland. God called her home on January 11, 2005 after a brief illness. Grace was educated in the Baltimore City Public School system. She was married to the late Reverend Jewel Conigland, whom she affectionately referred to as "Bunk". They had one daughter, Sylvia. They were members of Memorial Baptist Church, until his death in 1985, when she joined the Garden of Prayer Baptist Church family. Grace was openly friendly and spoke to everyone with whom she came in contact. When problems arose throughout the family, everyone always called Grace to pray for them. She prayed faithfully three (3) times a day. The day prior to her death, she prayed fervently and reverently for everyone. Grace was a kind and very loving person. Everyone who knew her loved her. At the onset of her illness at Christmas, Grace mentioned this day she would pray for herself. Celebrating her home going is one daughter, Sylvia Sanders; one son-in-law, Vernon Sanders Sr.; one sister, Elizabeth Moore; one brother-in-law, Barney Moore; one brother, Melvin Horsey; four sisters-in-law, seven grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren, four great-great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends. So long dear mother, get your rest You know I loved you, but God loved you best Lovingly, Your daughter, Sylvia Happy Sleepin' Time, Granny

“ To the family of Mrs. Conigland, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. May you put faith and trust in this promise because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
