

Grace Elizabeth Gray

February 18, 1937 - September 4, 2004

And God shall wipe all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying; neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. Revelations 21:4 Grace Day Claiborne Gray was born on February 18, 1937 to the late William and Evelyn Day, Sr. in Richmond, Virginia. She was preceded in death by her son Darryl Claiborne and her husband Bobby Gray. Grace accepted Christ at an early age at St. John Baptist Church, Washington Park. She was educated in the Richmond Public Schools and retired after 25 years of service for the City of Richmond. Grace married Earl Claiborne, Sr. and of this union there were five sons. Grace loved the Ministry of Gospel Music and enjoyed being with family and friends. She leaves to cherish her memories, her sons; Earl Jr. (Rona) of Upper Marlboro, Md., Beverly (Zena), Fernando (Terry) and Alfonzo (Muriel) Claiborne; eleven grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mae Jones and Jean Claiborne; two brothers, Julius and George Day; three sisters-in-law; one brother-in-law; one devoted friend Loretta Simmons and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, others relatives and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Mrs. Gray: I am sorry for your great loss. I send the family my condolences. However, as you already displayed in the obituary, there are several scriptures in the Bible from which we can take comfort. Another such is found at Acts 15:24. It says "...that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Thus, we must wait on Jehovah God to fulfill his promises and take away our pain.##imported-begin##Kendra##imported-end##
