

Grace Ruth Mitchell

May 19, 1919 - November 22, 2011

GRACE RUTH MITCHELL, daughter of the late William and Hannah Augusta Howard, born on May 19, 1919 in Greensburg Pennsylvania. After a lengthy illness , she departed this life on November 22, 2011.

She was educated in the Greensburg, Pennsylvania public school system.

Grace was a professional housekeeper for several years in North Hollywood, California. She also worked as a nurse's aide in Gary, Indiana.

She met and married George Wingfield in 1949. Out of this union was born one daughter, Bernadine Wingfield-Woods.

Grace was one of eight siblings who all preceded her in death.

She became a member of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church in her midtwenties and spent her life in devotion to her faith as a literature Evangelist, a Bible worker, and in other religious capacities, and was a spiritual leader in her family. Her favorite song was "What a Friend We have in Jesus"

Grace Mitchell made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her.

She leaves to mourn: one daughter, Bernadine Wingfield Woods of Baltimore, Maryland; two grandsons Raymond A. Gee (Ladena) and Derick A. Gee (Tammi); three great-grandchildren, Crystal Arielle, Raymond Anthony, Jr and Kimberly Arianna Gee of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; her nieces, Rose Marie Williamson and Loretta Mae Smith; and a host of great-nieces and -nephews and friends from Gary, Indiana and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
