

Grace W. Baker

July 8, 1935 - September 28, 2004

On Tuesday, September 28, 2004, Grace Baker, the daughter of James S. Baker and Maggie Baker Coleman departed this life to be with our Heavenly Father. She was born July 8, 1935 in Halifax County, Virginia, and attended public school there. She was an employee of Sinai Hospital in Baltimore for over thirty-five years. She was a devoted worker and received many awards and citations for her services. Grace loved her family. She was fond of her nephews and nieces and loved to talk about their accomplishments. She was a wonderful neighbor. She was kind, thoughtful, and willing to help anyone. She was preceded in death by her sister, Rosell Baker, and three brothers, James Baker, Lenard Baker, and William Coleman. She leaves to cherish her memory: sisters-in-law, Gracie Baker and Vanessa Coleman; nephews, nieces and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that God "is near to those broken at heart and crushed in spirit." (See Psalms 34:18) Isn't this a comforting thought?##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Sorry to hear of your loss. Our Heavenly Father has promised that the "last enemy death" will be destroyed.(First Corinthians 15:26) What about our loved ones who have died? Daniel 12:2 says- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life." These will wake up to a paradise earth in which there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Luke 23:43,Matthew 5:5 and Revelation 21:3-5) May these divinely inspired promises give you much comfort and strength.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the Family: Please accept my condolences. We can be very sadden when our love ones dies. However, Jesus offers us a hope at John 11:25, ...I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. I hope you too can find hope and encouragement from these words.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##
