

Gracie Mae Caple

January 7, 1924 - September 28, 2012

Gracie Mae Caple was received in our Father's house on September 28, 2012 after a brief illness at the Aria Bucks Health Center, Langhorne, Pennsylvania. She began her earthly life in Lilesville, North Carolina on January 7, 1924, born to the late Fannie Mae Smith. He was preceded in death by her devoted husband Rufus Caple of sixty-five years and loving daughter, Sallie Ruth Johnson.

Gracie professed her love for Christ at an early age, where she attended Bessie Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church in Lilesville, North Carolina until she moved to Baltimore, Maryland and joined the Concord Baptist Church, which a membership spanning nine years. Gracie was active in the Retiree Ministry, and attended services regularly.

Gracie was a phenomenal cook and held numerous positions in the food service industry, preparing delicious meals that reflected her passion for fine cuisine. She retired from the Five Mile House Restaurant, where she prepared meals to nourish the soul. Gracie was multi-faceted and had numerous interests, which included traveling, gardening, sewing, fishing, sports enthusiasts and watching her favorite soap operas. Gracie was loving, giving and committed to her family.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her grandson, Darryl Johnson of Capitol

Heights, Maryland; her great-granddaughter, Nicole Johnson; one great-great grandchild, Aiden Mensah both of Woodbridge, Virginia; two sisters-in-law, Clara Ingram and Catherine Caple both of Charlotte, North Carolina; two devoted cousins, Lillie Mae Smith-Moody and George Smith of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; a special niece, Annie Tisdale of Fort Washington, Maryland, who loved, cared and shared many precious moments; as well as a host of nieces and nephews; family and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
