

Graham Walker Charity

January 12, 1951 - March 12, 2018

Graham W. Charity, 67, of Charles City, Virginia departed this life suddenly March 12, 2018. He was born January 12, 1951 to the late Sidel W. and Emily Charity, both of Charles City, Virginia.

He joined Gilfield Baptist Church and Church of God at an early age. Graham graduated from Charles City County Public Schools. He was formerly employed by E.I. Dupont whereafter twenty-nine years of dedicated service, he retired.

Graham was devoted to his family, enjoying spending time with his children and grandchildren. He was known as a Jack-of-all-Trades, hobbies including fishing, playing games, laughing and joking. A man of many talents. He also was an avid lover of cars, which he collected, restored and finished.

He is survived by his devoted wife of 43 years, Muriel Charity; two sons, Marquis and Graham "G.W." Charity; two daughters, Brandi and Heather "Palaj" Charity; six grandchildren, Lia, Keisha, Branden, Kayne, Kiya and Temaya; one great-granddaughter, Harmony; three sisters, Charlotte (Wesley) Peterson, Patricia Charity-Miles and June Charity-Allen; two sisters-in-law, Brenda Walker and Michelle Bradby; several nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Our lives go on without you
But nothing is the same
We have to hide our heartache
When someone speaks your name
Sad are the hearts that love you
Silent are the tears that fall
Living without you is the hardest part of all.

“ Thank you for all your laughter and for being a respectful friend. I will never forget our youthful years as well as our aging a bit years. Our last conversation we laughed and we both said we would see each other a little later. Rest on my cousin, my friend..... Love Doreen as you called me ("Elvis")..... Always you would greet with "Hey Elvis." You knew instantly I would smile. Thanks "Grim" Rest in peace

To Graham's family,

We just heard the news and are shocked. Graham and I worked at Dupont in Plant 3. Jack of all trades he was and one of his old special projects (a shed) is still standing in Petersburg, VA (smile)!

God has him now and He has no better person than Graham. Rest in the Lord family and know that God does all things well.

“ I will always remember hanging out at "The Creek" with you and our extended family and friends. You were full of jokes and laughter and other times so quiet, just checking out the crowd. After drag racing on Route 5, I sped into a close parking place (with dust fling) next to your new Lincoln Town car. Someone yelled: Graham she almost got you!!! You said " she got it in, if not they still sell them. With a smile on your face, you whispered to me, "You cut that really close and laughed. Your smile will always be with me, Love you cousin, Rest In Peace!!!! Bridget

“Graham, aka Grim, you will definitely be missed. You appeared to be gruff but was a gentle giant. I harassed you with hugs as an adult to pay you back for teasing me as a kid. I LOVE you and you'll forever be in my heart. Love June aka "white face sheep"
