

Gregory L. Alston

April 25, 1970 - September 14, 2020

On Monday, September 14, 2020, Gregory Alston father, son, brother passed away suddenly at the age of 50 while at Genesis Cromwell Center.

Gregory is survived by his son, Omarion and his brother, Steven, uncles, aunts and a host of cousins.

Gregory was born April 25, 1970 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Nathaniel Alston and Josephine Davis. Gregory spent a number of years working in Construction (Masonry) and Security.

Gregory known to many as "Big Man" was always full of life despite his health issues over recent years. Gregory always knew how to put a smile on everyone's face, cracking jokes or reminiscing with a funny story usually about the person he was speaking with at the time. Gregory was a caring man who treated everyone like family and always wanted to make sure that you were ok. He will be deeply missed by his friends, family and anyone who knew him.
