“ I extend my heartfelt sympathy to the family of Mr. Bushrod. It's so hard for us to deal with the death of a loved one. We want our loved ones to be here with us always. Jehovah God desires eternal life in perfect conditions for all of his earthly children, and he has purposed to see that his purpose is fulfilled. Rev 21:4 promises: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." May it bring comfort to you to know that one day Gregory will live again, because God's son, Jesus, will resurrect many back to life once again; just as he did when he was here on the earth. As he himself states at John 10:10, "I have come so that they might have life, and have it in abundance." Please find much comfort in the bible, and from the prayers of friends who care deeply about your pain, and remember most of all that we have a loving heavenly father who has the power to erase this pain from our hearts, and to undo all the effects of sickness and death. Please find strength in his promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss this wonderful promise in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Over the years my husband and I have received much comfort from the loving promises of the Bible. One such promise is Acts 24:15- "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive as much comfort and strength in the days ahead as you think about the loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
