“ My condolences to the family. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. However, the bible gives us the needed strength to cope. Jesus said at John 11:25 that he is "the resurrection and the life. He that exercise faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." May this strengthen you all as it did me.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ My condolences to Gregs family. I was sorry to read his obituary in the paper. We haven't seen Greg since about 1979. He was the best man at our wedding in 1978. We were good friends with Greg & Carol Sauer (his girlfriend at that time). Greg was one of the most polite people I had ever known. We have often wondered about him over the years. We never knew how to get in touch with him. The last I knew he had a grandmother that lived off Belle Grove Rd in Pumphrey. I wasn't positive that I had the right Greg Ballard until I seen his photo here on the website. I knew his middle name was Elton and the intial in the obit was E. I was hoping it wasn't him, sadly it was. It seems like yesterday that we were all running around having fun driving our fast cars and goofing off. We lost touch a short while after the wedding. Greg had a cousin named Stanley that we were also friends with. I miss those days. Now we have all grown much older and have lost Greg. I wish we would have got together one more time. If anyone reads this message I would love to hear about what Greg had been up to over the years. Again I offer my sincere condolences to the Ballard family.##imported-begin##William & Holly Phillips##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends of Mr. Ballard, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." It is my hope that this scripture comforts you.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Dear Family & Friends of Mr. Ballard. Please accept my deepest sympathy for your great loss. I, too, have lost someone close to me and I found much comfort from God's word, the bible. If I may share a comforting scripture with you it would be the one found at Isaiah 26:19 which says: "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust..." This wonderful promise of seeing our loved ones again should bring us all comfort. Also, Isaiah 25:8 says, "He will swallow up death forever..." Imagine death being done away with. This is what we all can look forward to in the near future. Please compare these scriptures to your copy of the bible to see these wonderful promises firsthand and have hope. Your family is in my prayers.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
