

Gregory Hill

January 27, 1917 - April 9, 2007

GREGORY HILL, JR., son of the late Gregory and Lucy Bell Hill, was born on January 27, 1917 in Blackstone, Virginia. He departed this life on April 9, 2007 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in Blackstone, Virginia. He married Mildred Noble in 1940. Later joined the Navy and serving four years during World War II, he returned from the Navy in 1946. Out of his union with Mildred, seven children were born. Gregory lived in New York, where his mother, brother, two sisters, grandchildren and many nieces and nephews were for over forty years. While in New York he made many, many lifelong friends. He returned to Baltimore in 1992 to live with his daughter Ericka, who cared for him and nursed him through his illnesses until he passed. Gregory made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man. Gregory had one brother, Scotty Hill, and one sister, Ruth Ross, who preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Mildred Hill; loving sister, Queenie Filipper; six children, Gregory III, Ericka (Rikki), Kelvin, Alett, Terrance and Wanda (daughter, Zarene preceded him in death). He also leaves fourteen grandchildren, twenty-one great-grandchildren, one son-in-law, two daughters-in-law, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ To The Hill's ! May you all take comfort in knowing others send their condolences. Losing some one in death hurts. I know the feeling. I have found comfort in the bible to help heal the pains. Jesus groaned in the spirit and became troubled and shortly afterward gave way to tears when Lazarus die. (john11:22-44) The greatest man who ever lived on earth felt pain like us when someone dear to us dies. Happy we can be to know that death will very soon end. (Isa.25:8) May all the happy times spent with Mr. Gregory stay close to the heart. I send my fellow feeling. Crosby.##imported-begin##crosby##imported-end##

“ I would like to send my deepest sympathy to the love ones of, Gregory Hill. Please allow God to bring you comfort at this time; he knows how you feel. He felt the pain that death brings when his son, Jesus Christ died, and because he knows how painful death is, he has made us a promise that one-day, death would be no more. Isaiah 25:8 “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces...” God cannot lie. --Hebrew 6:18.##imported-begin##D.Kennedy##imported-end##
