“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ I would like to extend my deepest condolences to the Kane family. I truly enjoyed Mr. Kane's work as a writer for the Baltimore Sun. He's prose was brilliant, well thought out, very rational and most importantly it was convincing. When he was writing for the Sun I would run outside each morning to grab my paper, come back in and sit down to breakfast, open it and skip all the headlines to get to his article first. He was a refreshing and strong voice for a newspaper bent on pushing only a leftist agenda. He will be missed.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
