“ As I sit and think about all the things I am grateful and thankful for this holiday season, you came to my mind. I remember when you were little and we called you "Spitty-mo" because you drooled all the time. I remember your walk and how you held your head to the side which I thought was so cute. In all of the memories, I do not remember ever thinking of you being taken away in the manner in which you were. Although I was not a big part of your adult life, I still must say I miss you and wish you were here. Mike misses you a lot and has gone through some rough times with your death. He misses Darryl as well and he don't know how to handle the both of you being taken in such a violent manner. I am praying for Keyon to

Can't say goodbye to you cause it's been a while since i've sayed hi. Been contemplating all day if i should come see you to say my last goodbye's. Don't want to see you like this so i will take my chances and hold off to see you when i get there. Nothing is more painful then losing someone you called a friend. No matter what anyone say's you have alway's had a place in my heart. (Shanita) 2/12/12
