

Gregory R. Leonard

January 27, 1949 - March 18, 2019

On March 18, 2019, our Heavenly Father sent Angels and took our beloved Greg to his Heavenly home after years of failing health.

Gregory R. Leonard, known as, Greg, is the son of Shirley Ball Leonard and the late Herbert B. Leonard. Born on January 27, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland, Greg is the oldest of three siblings.

Greg was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Edmondson High School in the class of 1968. He briefly attended Coppin State College.

He joined the United States Army in February, 1969 and received an Honorable Discharge. He was employed by Maryland Shipping. He was later employed with his family's business, until health problems prevented him from working.

Gregg was known for his charisma, style and sense of humor. He was always a jokester. We will remember his bag personality. He will also known for his motorcycles, beginning in high school, until his health began to fail. Riding his motorcycle was spiritually calming for him.

He accepted the Lord as his Savior at City Temple of Baltimore, under Rev.

Yeargin.

Greg's loving memories will be eternally cherished by his everlasting love, Lena Foster, loving and devoted mother, Shirley Leonard, son, Troy Leonard (and Troy's mother Deborah Pearson), daughter, Sony Williams, sisters, Rosalind Carter and Leonard, special nieces, Keddrian Lawrence and Sanchez Foster, 13 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
