

Gregory McCullum

December 25, 1956 - April 4, 2007

Gregory McCullum - was born on December 25, 1956 to the late June Dennis Powell and Annie Ruth Powell. He was the fifth son often children, four that preceded him in death, Diane McCollum, Denise Williams, Phillip Powell and Dennis Powell. At the tender age of six months, his mother honored the pleasure of him becoming legally adopted by her sister Bertha McCollum and her husband Frederick McCollum, who endured the blessings of having him as a wonderful son. He entered eternal rest on April 4, 2007. Gregory, known to everyone as "lump", received his education through the Baltimore City public school system. He graduated from Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School and had a passion for basketball, which he enjoyed using his height on the court. He received numerous awards from different teams that he played on. He graduated from Baltimore City Community College and obtained a degree in Microbiology. After graduation, he obtained employment at Beckton and Dickerson Diagnostic Corporation where he had a 30-year tenure. He often spoke about the good times he and his co-workers encountered. He loved to dance, sing, and spend quality time with his daughter, fiancé, and mother and playing football with his great nephew, Mark, who will never forget the good times they spent together. He also had a special bond with his niece, Tawanda, which will carry a lifetime of memories. He had several childhood friends, Jack, who was there to bring encouragement and support till the end, Mike, Dave, Maurice, Johnny, Cookie, Greg Green, Nana, Billie, Pop Pop, Daniel and Purnell. He had an unforgettable personality that differs from any other man because he remained the same at all times. Even through the obstacles that he faced for the last four months, he remained humbled and continued to smile which brought much joy and comfort to everyone around him. Best of all, Gregory was introduced to the Lord at a young age through his mother, Bertha McCollum who is a fervent believer in the Lord. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Bertha McCollum; daughter, Monica McCollum; fiancé, Darlene, also known as "Sweet Dana"; two sisters, Aletha Harlee and Debra Powell; three brothers, Michael, Darryl and Donald Powell; four special nieces, Tawanda, Tammie, Shannon and Leaka; ten aunts, Annie Mae Moody, Luretha McCall, Sarah Harlee, Mae Harlee, Alice Harlee of Baltimore, Leola McNair of Maxton, NC and Jane, Coretta, MayElla and Alice of Rochester, New York; uncles, John Walter, Glen Powell, Renard Powell and David Powell; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly says- "There is going to be a resurrection." John 5:28,28 tells us that those in the "memorial tombs" will come back to life. Many will come back to life on a paradise earth with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (See Revelation 21:3-5, Isaiah 33:24, Psalm 37:29) May you receive much comfort and strength when you reflect on these promises of the Bible. And may you draw close to the maker of them Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ. (Psalm 83:18, John 3:16)###imported-begin##Sharon Hill###imported-end##

“ Dear family, please accept my heartfelt sympathy on the loss of your loved one. Unfortunately, death is such a heartbreaking situation, but is something we have to contend with at present. Very soon Almighty God promises to do away with sickness and death forever. 1st Cor. 15:26 says, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Then an earth-shaking event will take place. Jehovah God and his son Jesus will bring millions back to life to live in peaceful and secure conditions on a paradise earth. 2nd Peter 3:13 says, "There are new heavens and a new earth which we are awaiting, and in these righteousness is to dwell." Also Psallm37:29 says, "The righteous themsselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it. Very soon, no more tears of sorrow, but tears of joy when the dead are brought back to life. Rev. 21:3,4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more." "The former things have passed away. Family, please find comfort in his promises, because without fail they will come true.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
