

Gregory Nealy

August 18, 1962 - July 20, 2014

Gregory Nealy (aka "Greg"), son of Mary English and the late George Nealy, was born August 18, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on July 20, 2014.

He received his education at the Frederick Douglass High School in Baltimore. He then attended Sojourner-Douglass College for one year. Upon completion of his education, he worked on a number of jobs in pursuit of his entrepreneurial endeavors. He was a true leader in his own right and wanted better for himself and his family.

Gregory made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend, "Big" brother, and a devoted family man. Gregory loved his sports (Baltimore Ravens, Baltimore Orioles, and Boxing) and just knew he had the best pitching arm in Latrobe.

He leaves to mourn: his mother, Mary F. English; son, "Little" Gregory Nealy; daughter, Jada Nealy; two brothers, George Nealy and James Nelson; one grandchild, nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.

NOT AGAIN

I lost a nephew, a protector, a friend,
You were one of the few who called me Mug;
I see you coming, next was a smile,
a punch to the shoulder and a big hug.
I was the oldest I had to let you know always
We would be the same age for just two days.
The last day we were together, you were doing what you do best,
Eating a big plate of food, talking stuff and taking a rest.
You looked out for me your whole life long,
From childhood to being adults, you had the strong arm.
They say that time heals all wounds,
These wounds will take time, it happened too soon.
(I love you, Greg.)
Love, Aunt Shirley

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ My deepest condolences on your loss of Mr. Gregory Nealy. The hurt we feel from losing our loved one may seem unbearable at times. Please take comfort though in the fact that Almighty God Jehovah has not forgotten them. And, he knows the pain you are feeling. He has promised that one day all who are asleep in death will hear his voice and awaken. (John 5:28-29) This promise is made possible by means of His heavenly kingdom. You are invited to learn more about this, and the many other promises Aug 1-3 at the "Keep Seeking First God's Kingdom" convention of Jehovah's Witnesses. It is a free bible based program for all to enjoy. It will be held at Fedex field in Washington DC. My name is Sharee, and I hope too see you and your family there.

“ *I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—
ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!*
