

Gregory Pickett Sr.

January 3, 1947 - December 19, 2011

Gregory was diagnosed as legally blind in 2003. He re-named his disability and called it an “inconvenience.” He said, “I just have to find another way to do what I need to do.” And, he did. He mowed the lawn, raked leaves, cooked on the grill, learned to use a cab, subway and public bus services. He traveled out of State for various meetings and trainings, by plane and train, with and without escorts. He was determined to “live a full life.”

He shared with me that “I can see clearly, now, that I’ve lost my eyesight, what I couldn’t see before, when I had my eyesight. Now I can see what “The Lord,’ has been trying to show me.”

Gregory had so much beauty inside him, when you were in his presence “The Lord,’ has been trying to show me.”

He attended “The New Shiloh School of Music, where he studied piano, violin, voice and “The Saxophone.”

Gregory is survived by: his loving wife, Barbara Honeycutt-Pickett; four sons, Gregory Pickett, Jr., Jermaine Pickett, Gerald Baylor, Jr., and Jerome Baylor; three daughters-in-law, Renee Baylor, Kristal Pickett and Sharon Pickett; seven grandsons, Stephan Pickett, Jermaine Pickett, Jr., Jerome Baylor, Jr.,

JaRon Pickett, Janae Pickett, Naomi Pickett, Kaelah Brockington, Nevaeh Ferguson and Shyra Baylor; three brothers, Marco Pickett, Walter Pickett and Geoffrey Pickett; two sisters, Gloria Faion Ragin and Maria Maye; six sisters-in-law, Renee Pickett, Margaret Pickett, Shirley Honeycutt-Tate, Margaret Harvey, Helena Haskins and Jane Honeycutt; two brothers-in-law, Wilbur Ragin and James Honeycutt, Jr.; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, relatives and friends.
