

Gregory Smith

January 9, 1953 - May 25, 2007

Gregory Smith, son of the late Naomi J. Doles and Lawrence Smith, was born November 9, 1953 and suddenly departed this life on May 25, 2007. He was the youngest of five siblings. He received his early education in the Baltimore City Public School System and completed his education with a General Education Diploma. He was very proud of this, as he knew the value the family placed on education. Gregory was introduced to a Christian life early. He attended several area churches of various denominations and finally accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his savior and was baptized at New Shiloh Baptist Church in 1999. Gregory was affectionately known as 'ICY" throughout the East Baltimore Community. He was well liked and enjoyed the friendship of many people. Cy was a lover of music and style. He always like to present a neat appearance and could listen to his oldies for hours on end. He enjoyed family gatherings and celebrations. He eagerly anticipated the 61st continuous reunion of his family to be held later this year. He was an animal lover and could train any dog in no time. He was devoted to his dog "Pearl". Gregory never married and had no children. He was engaged to Gail Richardson. He leaves to cherish his memory and to celebrate his life: three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Carolyn D. Blackwell (Charles), Mrs. Dorothy Purvis Holt (Howard), Lenora A. Doles, and Allen A. Doles Sr.; two devoted nieces, Aprile Purvis and Karen Fleet of Atlanta, Ga.; five nephews, Allen A. Doles Jr., Rondy P. Griffin (Steeley), Arlen Doles, Mark Taylor and Adrian Doles of Atlanta, Ga.; two great-nieces and five great nephews. In addition, he leaves a host of cousins and friends special among whom are: Melvina Hall, Pamela Alford, Barry Culmer, Earl Culmer and Crystal Exum.

“ I wish to express my sincere condolences to the family of Mr. Smith. Death was never apart of Jehovah God's arrangement. However by means of His Kingdom, death will be removed forever. May your family find comfort in the words found at Isaiah 25:8,9 and Isaiah 61:2.##imported-begin##K.D. Smith##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. John 11:1-44 reports about Jesus raising his friend Lazurus back to life. This is one of many encouraging examples in the Bible that gives us hope of our dead loved ones being raised from the memorial tombs. (John 5:28,29) At John 5:21 Jesus said: "For just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to." May you receive much comfort and strength from friends and family. And may you receive much hope from these loving Bible promises. Also may you draw close to the maker of them Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ. (James 4:8, John 17:3)##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. The sorrow we feel when we lose someone we love can seem to go on forever. It may seem like there is no source of relief. Be assured that there is one that will provide us with relief, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort" ( 2 Corinthians 1:3,4). We only have to ask. He promises us that there will soon be an end to death, (Rev 21:3,4) and a resurrection for those who have fallen asleep in death (John 5:28,29). These promises were made by the "God who cannot lie." Titus 1:2. I would love to discuss these and other wonderful provisions with you. Please contact me if you are interested.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God's original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, "Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart," says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swannn##imported-end##
