

Gregory A. Thomas

July 3, 1960 - April 24, 2021

Gregory Anthony Thomas, son of the late Dorothy Louise Thomas and Lois William Polk, received his heavenly wings on April 24, 2021, after a short illness, while at home.

Greg affectionately known as “Daddy-O” graduated from Frederick Douglass Senior High School in 1978. Afterwards he joined the United States Army where he attended the Military Police Academy until 1979. He was discharged from the Army in 1982, and during that same year he participated in the Maryland National Guard until 1987 while being employed as a Security Officer (1983-2015) for the Enoch Pratt Library. In 1990, Greg received a diploma for attending the Baltimore City Police Academy.

He loved people and all sports, especially baseball. Greg was very active in the community where he lived and other areas of Baltimore. He provided transportation for people who did not have cars. Greg also enjoyed playing cards where he often talked a lot of trash, in addition to debating political issues with his friends. He was always available to provide a helping hand to anyone. Greg had a sweet soul and will be greatly missed by all, especially his wife, Kim who knew him for over 50 years.

Greg is survived by his loving wife, Kim (Kimmie), Jeffrie Thomas (brother), preceded in death Kevin Thomas (brother), Monique Jones (sister), Evelyn Barthart (godmother), Cookie and Earleen Barthart (god-sisters), as well as a host of nieces and nephews.
