

Gregory A. Thompson

July 10, 1961 - February 22, 2020

Gregory Arnold Thompson departed this life on February 22, 2020 after a lengthy illness. Gregory was preceded in death by his father Charles Winchester and the love of his life, his mother Ora Thompson Winchester.

Gregory moved to Baltimore City at an early age. He received his education from the Baltimore City public school system. Gregory was a stellar athlete at the Mergenthaler High School, where he won the "B" Conference Champion in 1977. He concluded his education and graduated from Forest Park High School.

Gregory had a challenging time getting over the death of his mom. Despite the major setback he continued to overcome and push through life. He worked as a gas station attendant and tow truck driver until he was no longer able to work. He enjoyed listening to oldies but goodies and watching action movies usually westerns and martial arts on his eight-track.

Gregory will truly be missed. He leaves to cherish his memories:

Uncle Edward Thompson Sr, two aunts; Ann Carpenter and Margie Terry, Cousins; Deborah Clarke, Ernest Royal, Zelda Thompson, Darryl Carpenter, Edward Thompson Jr. and Paula Lucas (Jeffery Lucas), And a host of other relatives and friends.
