

Grover Cleveland Comer

October 7, 1934 - October 7, 2006

GROVER CLEVELAND COMER, who was well known as Cleveland, was the son of Connie and Bessie Comer. He was born October 7, 1934 in Oxford, North Carolina. He departed this life on October 7, 2006 after enjoying many years of retirement. He received his education at Lee Jeffers Elementary School, in Oxford, North Carolina. In 1954 Cleveland decided to move to Baltimore, Maryland and make it his new home. At the age of twenty, he was employed by Pantry Pride Super Market where he worked for thirty-five years and then retired. He attended the Ray of Hope Baptist Church. Cleveland took one look at the lovely Grace Lee Ward Comer and later married her. With his love for his wife came his love for her excellent cooking. Out of that union was one daughter Pauline Comer, whom he affectionately called Paula. He truly adored his daughter Pauline and his granddaughter Princess. They shared many wonderful moments together. Anyone who knew Cleveland knew that outside of loving his family, he loved all kinds of sports and especially the races at Charlestown. And no one kept a car as clean as he did. Washing his car almost everyday allowed him to talk to the neighbors to catch up with what was happening. He was loved by many and will be dearly missed. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Grace Lee Ward Comer; his daughter, Pauline Comer; stepdaughter, Ann E. Munford; son-in-law, Sherman Munford, of Kingston, North Carolina; three granddaughters, Princess Grace Warren, Angela and Alexandria Munford; one sister, Ole Mae Royster of New Jersey; one brother, German Comer; sister-in-law, Brenda Comer, of North Carolina; and a very special cousin, GERALD GROSS; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 declares that there is going to be a resurrection for many of the dead. First Corinthians 15:26 assures us that our enemy death will be destroyed in God's due time. May you receive much comfort and strength from these loving promises of the Bible.##imported-begin##S. “ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, I know it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I'd like to send my condolences to the family. Losing a loved one can be very hard for anyone. But the Bible gives us a hope. Concerning our loved ones who have passed, Acts 24:15 helps us to appreciate "that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous". May you be comforted.##imported-begin##K Adams##imported-end##
