

Grover L. Gaddy

April 4, 1941 - July 19, 2016

GROVER LEE GADDY, son of the late Hazzie Gaddy and Johnnie Mae Grimes-Gaddy, was born on April 4, 1941 in St. Paul, North Carolina. He went from labor to reward suddenly on July 19, 2016.

During his youth, he confessed Christ and joined Pleasant Hill Baptist Church in Robinson County, North Carolina. He received his formal education in Lumberton, North Carolina at J. H. Haywood High School.

Later, he moved to Baltimore, Maryland where he was employed by a local lumber mill. Grover was crafty and skilled with his hands, and he gained employment as a home improvement technician for many years.

Grover's favorite hobbies were playing cards with his friends and neighbors, cooking (oh boy, could he cook), attending family gatherings on holidays, chilling; and let's not forget the Gaddy Family Reunion. He enjoyed relaxing under a tree with his big straw hat on. A gentle and mild-mannered man with a loving heart, he had a smile that would light up a room. A devoted friend and family man, truly he will be missed by everyone who knew him.

He leaves to cherish his memory: six children, Brenda (Denell), Nita, Renee, Greg, Leona, Larry; four sisters, Maxine Pittman and Geraldine Lessane of Baltimore, Md., Brenda McDowell (Willie) of Fayetteville, N.C. And Sharon

McDowell of Yonkers, N.Y.; ten grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; a loving and devoted niece, Dawn Pittman; and a host of other relatives and friends.
