

Gus Joseph Blunt Jr.

September 19, 1967 - March 3, 2018

On March 3, 2018 at 6:00 PM, God whispered to Gus Joseph Blunt Jr., often called Joe, to lay down his heavy burdens and “come” my child. You fought a good fight and finished your course.

Joe was born to Gus Joseph Blunt Sr. and Lou Esther Blunt on September 19, 1967 in East Meadow, New York. He attended his education at the Hempstead Public Schools. He accepted Christ at an early age and became a member of the South Hempstead Baptist Church, in Hempstead, New York. In addition, Joe was very inquisitive as a child and was always into something, along with his cousin Arrion. Often, he would like to preach and play church with his sisters Remona and Lori.

Joe was very gifted with his hands and at an early age his father taught him how to paint. He assisted his father on completing various jobs as a teenager. Playing drums was a gift and talent in which he started taking lessons as child and becoming a drummer for the South Hempstead Baptist Church for many years. Shortly after, Joe was employed as a licensed Master Barber in New York, Baltimore, MD and Charlotte, NC.

Joe leaves to cherish his memories; his loving wife, Leslie Blunt, his parents, Gus Joseph Blunt Sr. and Lou Esther Blunt, four sisters, Remona Blunt Wall (Robert), of Charlotte, NC, Lori Blunt of Baltimore, MD, Tyclie Blunt Carter (Nathaniel) of Pikesville, MD, and Corran Blunt Ford . Also, he leaves to cherish three nephews; Joshua, Koron, and Christian, two nieces; Jasmine and Corren, and one great niece; Jameesha, his loving godparents from New York, Nathan (Jack) and Rose Moultrie and a hosts of uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends.

Joe was preceded in death by his grandmother: Louise Watson, his nephew: Kenneth Grim, Jr. and brother-in-law; Glenn Ford.

La-Trenda A Gift

“ This has to be one of the hardest things to do. Gus and I was in Franklin School together, as well we lived a crossed the street from one another for years. You will deeply be missed, as well as your funny smile, my friend. Just not enough to words to express the sadness that I am experiencing. To the Blunt Family, So sorry to hear of your immense loss. Know that you and the family are in my prayers.
