“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. I know the sadness associated with the loss of one you love and I know the comfort offered by God in his Word the Bible. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 which talks about the hope of a resurrection for the righteous and the unrighteous. After reading these two scriptures please turn your attention to John 3:16 and Matthew 20:28. These two scriptures tell us why we can put faith in the promise of a resurrection. May they provide you with comfort and hope as they have for me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the Alexander Family, Losing a loved one to death is a sad and mournful time. We can look forward to what God's word states at Revelation 21:3,4, a time when "death will be no more, nor sorrow or pain be anymore". That will be a time of rejoicing. May God's word bring you comfort during this difficult time and please know that we care.##imported-begin##Douglas##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to ask that you please accept my wholehearted condolences, knowing that I surely could not fully understand how you feel. I would just like to leave you with a comforting scripture that gives us not only hope for the future, but also some relief in our time of mourning. John the 5th chapter, verses 28 and 29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." Yes, in the very near future we will have the wonderful opportunity to welcome our dead loved ones who have fallen asleep in death back to life, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29) May the words found in the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort of John 5:28,29 which assures us of the hope that those who have fallen asleep in death will receive a "resurrection" back to life. Life on an earth restored to a beautiful paradise. Psalms 37:11 says, "The meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." While we await that wonderful time please find comfort in these promises.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences to your family. At times like this Jesus left us scriptural comfort and hope. This is demonstrated at John 11: 38-44 with the account of Lazarus. May this encourage you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ I send my sincere condolences for the loss of Gustavia. Although it's several months since she left you; I'm sure the pain is still there, because we never want to see our loved ones depart. It's truly a hurting thing. My heart goes out to you, but I's like to leave you with this comforting scripture. Remember this: "One day the dead will be ressurected back to life. This is Jehovah"s promise, and in the hands of his son, Jesus, he will see that his will is carried out. John 5:28,29 promises that one day Gustavia, and all those who are sleeping in the memorail tombs will hear Jesus"s voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." May the thought of one day being with Gustavia again comfort you, and help you to cope with her loss.##imported-begin##rita johnson##imported-end##
