

Gwendolyn C. Curtis

August 22, 1918 - July 4, 2014

Gwendolyn Calantha Curtis, daughter of Walter and Emma Curtis, who preceded her in death, was born on August 22, 1918 in Baltimore, Maryland at Johns Hopkins Hospital. She slipped away peacefully in her sleep after suffering from Alzheimer's on July 4, 2014.

"Gwen", as she was fondly called, was introduced to God and his goodness at an early age. She was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools. Gwen enjoyed a long work history in Baltimore, however, Gwen always fondly spoke of her employment at Hutzler's Brothers Department Store as an elevator operator in downtown Baltimore.

This very proper and sweet small stature lady was a cheerful contributor to various nonprofit organizations such as St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, War Veterans of America, Help the Children's Foundation and many more charitable organizations. Gwendolyn faithfully gave to the poor, sick, injured and the down-trodden.

Gwen enjoyed many activities which include sewing, reading all types of literary genres, singing, dancing and sharing with others stories of childhood and family activities. Because Gwendolyn was an only child, she could be seen with her family, cousins, neighbors or friends enjoying life to its fullest.

“ Dear Family,
Sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. Please know that God's Word the Bible states: “As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing.” (1 Corinthians 15:26) Never again will grief-stricken people have to go to a cemetery to bury a loved one. The Bible says: “Death will be no more.” (Revelation 21:4) Please find comfort and hope in Gods word the Bible. He truly cares for you.
