

Gwendolyn Fowlkes

January 3, 1957 - November 1, 2024

GWENDOLYN YVONNE FOWLKES was born in Baltimore, Maryland to Elaine Brown and the late Arthur Fowlkes on January 3, 1957. She departed her life on November 1, 2024, due to a lengthy illness.

Gwendolyn received her education from Baltimore City Public Schools. She started a career in the nursing field and retired as a Baltimore City Employee.

Gwen, as we all called her, was very family oriented. To know her was to love her! Her personality exuded selflessness. She had a heart of gold, and she wore her heart on her sleeve

. She was caring and compassionate. She was a great listener, very understanding and so easy to talk to Gwen could make friends everywhere she went and loved by all. She was a nurturer therefore, caring about people was like second nature to her. Gwen would feed you, clothe you, or give you her last of what she had. She loved pranking people and looked forward to "April Fools" day. Gwen was very of life, and she also touched many lives. She definitely left her footprints here on earth.

Gwen's greatest joy of her life was spending time with her best friend/ her one and only child DIONNE!

Gwen and Dionne would have endless talks, lie in bed together watching tv, laughing, dancing & singing together; and just loving on each other.

Gwen loved spending time with her family and friends, that's how she developed such a wonderful personality. She always kept everyone laughing with her jokes. Let's not forget when the music came on, she would get up and cut a rug. We could go on forever about Gwen because our memories of her are endless, but this is just to say the least about how much we will all miss her.

Gwen was preceded in death by her father Arthur Fowlkes and her sister Carlisa Stokes (Ladybug).

Gwen leaves to cherish her precious memory: her mother, Elaine Brown; her child, Dionne Hanna; two brothers, Carl Stokes and Leslie Stokes (Beaver); sister, Robin Stokes (Cookie); sister-in-law, Regina Stokes; two grandchildren, Desheara Williams and Tony Allen; great-granddaughter, Harlym Lessane. long-time devoted partner, Michael Sewell; one special nephew, Lenard Stokes (more like her son) who was very dear to her; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; also, a few friends whom she was very fond of, "The Rich Family" and Cynthia Creek.

Cemetery Details

Private

Baltimore, MD

Previous Events

Memorial Service

NOV 16. 2:00 PM (ET)

March Funeral Home - East
1101 E. North Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21202

Tribute Wall

SH

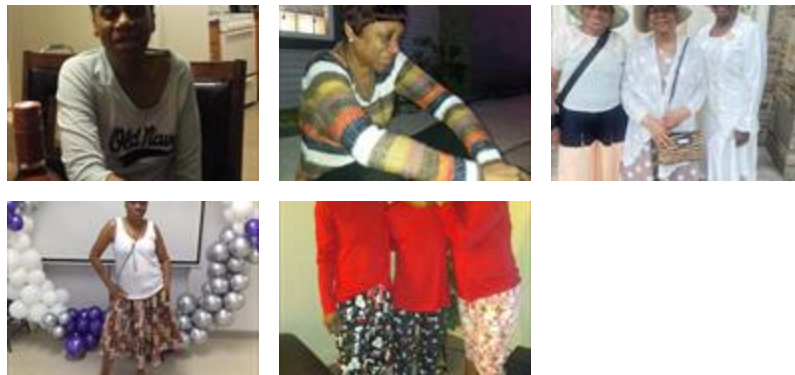

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Sheara - November 16, 2024 at 02:10 PM

CB

“ Aunt Gwen was something to EVERYBODY!!! To me she was the historian now Aunt Cookie will try and disagree but Aunt Cookie can't remember what she ate for dinner soooo...we can't trust her memory lol but seriously Aunt Gwen is with her sister now and she is at peace!! LongLiveGwen&Ladybug carletta brown - November 16, 2024 at 10:04 AM

VT

“ Sending my love, prayers, and sincere condolences to the family.

Love Always Vicki Torain-Hanna

Vicki Torain-Hanna - November 16, 2024 at 08:42 AM

TF

“ Teko FOLY lit a candle in memory of Gwendolyn Fowlkes

Teko FOLY - November 06, 2024 at 05:09 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

March Funeral Homes - November 05, 2024 at 01:14 PM