

Gwendolyn Ann Hendricks

May 12, 1946 - August 22, 2010

Gwendolyn (Gwen) was born to the late George E. Williams and Deaconess Edith Gregory on May 12, 1946. Gwen attended Van DeVyer and later attended Richmond Public Schools and graduated from Armstrong High School. She joined the Trinity Baptist Church at a very early age and continued as a faithful Steward until her transition from labor to reward.

Gwen was a member of the Solid Gold Ministry, the Directory Committee and always answered faithfully when she was called upon to participate in programs for her church.

She had a listing of exciting career endeavors, among them the Postal Service, Nabisco, the Virginia Department of Agriculture, and C&P Telephone Co. to name a few. She later settled at the Department of Juvenile where she became out on disability in February. Gwen was a dedicated and faithful employee who always gave 100% in whatever capacity she worked or was needed. If you worked with Gwen or had the privilege of being an employee of hers, you knew Gwen did not take irresponsibility from her employees and she was fair.

She leaves to cherish a lasting legacy and loving memories, her devoted daughter, Rochelle R. Sargent (Illya Davis) devoted mother, Deaconess Edith W. Gregory; devoted sister, Gloria M. Williams (Otis Valentine); aunt, Bessie
