“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. The death of a loved one pains us like no other event in our lives, and it is something that God never desired for his earthly children. One day he will undo all the pain and sorrow we have all experienced by ending sickness and death forever. Then Isaiah 33:24 and Isaiah 25:8 promises that "No resident will ever again say, "I am sick. That is because Jehovah God will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces, because Jehovah himself has spoken it." Also according to John 5:26-29 his Son, Christ Jesus, will call all those in the memorial tombs, and they will hear his voice and come out of those tombs to life once again. Until that wonderful event takes place, may your precious memories of Gwendolyn be a source of comfort to you.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hello! Hardy's ! May I send my condolences to you all. Ms. Gwendolyn was in her 70's when she died, the bible at Ps.90;10 say that some persons would live to be 70 and others because of their speical mightiness 80 years. It would be a great time when we all will be able to live forever as the bible say in the future ,when Death will be no more and pain and sorrow and tears gone forever, Why , because ALL THINGS WILL BE MADE NEW, Rev.21:3-5 . The greatest news to hear. I have lost dear loved ones in death and know the feeling and overwhelming hurt that comes with death. Comfort is there for you all from your heavenly father as 2 Cor.1:3 say in all tribulations. May all the great tmes spent with Ms.Gwendolyn help be a relection of happiness. My fellow feeling, Lillian Crosby.###imported-begin##Lillian Crosby###imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##
