

Gwendolyn O. Warren

November 28, 1940 - August 10, 2005

Gwendolyn O. Warren, daughter of the late Otis Warren Sr., and the late Rose Campbell Warren was born on November 28, 1940. She departed this life on August 10, 2005 after a lengthy illness. She graduated from Carver High school in Baltimore at the age of eighteen. She held various job titles throughout her career such as waitress, parking lot attendant, and security officer. She eventually retired from Stop Security Agency as supervisor in 1992. She was a long time member of New Carmel Baptist Church where she was a faithful and diligent server. More recently she became a member of First New Life Baptist Church where she was a faithful Sunday school member, always willing to help in any area; she served on the Women's Fellowship Committee and Pastor's Aide Committee. Her favorite Bible verse was II Corinthians 12:9-10-12. She was a devoted wife of the late Walter Davis and loving mother of five children: Kevin, Warren, Derrick, Walter and Towanda. Granny as she was affectionately known made numerous friends wherever she went. She was a beautiful person whose boisterous manner easily made her the life of every party. She loved spending time with her grandchildren: Delante, Devin, Justin, Jordan, KJ, and Tamier. Some of her other pleasures were cooking, reading, keeping abreast of current events, having family gatherings and talking to everyone she knew. She was greatly loved and will be sorely missed. She leaves to cherish her life, five children: Kevin, Warren, Derrick, Walter and Towanda; two brothers, Otis Warren Jr., and Bernard Campbell; one nephew, Otis Warren III; one niece, Elaine

Campbell; five grandchildren Delante, Devin, Jordan, Tamier, Kevin and Justin; one great-grandchild, one best friend, Rosa Dobson and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Lena Marshall, To the Family of Gwendolyn o. Warren, I want to express my sympathy for the loss of your dear love one. I know at this time your hearts are heavy with pain, because death is an enemy. I too am trying to deal with the loss of my husband. I would like to share a couple of scriptures with you that I have found to be of comfort to me. In the bible at John 5; 28 and 29, it holds out a promise that we can see our love ones again, it tells us in part, that the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out those who did good things, to a resurrection of life those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment. The beauty of this is that Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses. please remember that the bible is full of words of comfort. please read Acts 24; verse 15, and Revelation 21; 3-4 thank you so much .##imported-begin##Lena Marshall,##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.###imported-begin##Carter###imported-end##
