

Gwendolyn Pinder

October 3, 1944 - May 29, 2004

On Saturday, May 29, 2004, our beloved Gwendolyn hearkened to the voice of God when he called her home. Gwendolyn May Pinder, affectionately known as Gwennie was born October 3, 1944 in Baltimore Maryland. she was the youngest of six children born to the late Felton and Florence Giddiens. She matriculated through Baltimore City Schools graduating from Douglass Senior School. Gwennie was employed with the Baltimore City School System in Food Services for many years. On June 4, 1966 she married the love of her life James Pinder. From this union two sons were born Scott and Dwayne. Gwennie remained a devoted and loving wife for 38 years until death did them part. Gwennie enjoyed cooking (she was an excellent cook) and going to Atlantic City or Delaware Park. But most of all she enjoyed her family and loved her children and grandchildren very much. Gwendolyn leaves to celebrate her life and carry on her love: a devoted husband, James Pinder; two sons, Scott and Dwayne; one daughter, Dione Garrett; four sisters, Blanche Giddiens, Conservilla Tyson, Thelma Carr and Janover Giddiens; one brother, the late Leroy Giddiens; three sisters-in-law, Virginia Garnett, Rose Bradley, and Catherine Dawkins; two brothers-in-law, Mike Tyson and Author Dawkins; eight grandchildren, Scott, Dominic, Kieshawn, Daishawn, Teshawn, Way'Neshia, Way'Keria and Ty'Sheka Pinder; one great-grandson, Deontay Pinder; two devoted friends, John and Charlotte Gray and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your dear loved one. Our family receives much solace and comfort from the Bible. This I share with you. Isaiah 26:19 says- "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." Continue to draw close to God in prayer, and the Bible promises that "he himself will sustain you."- Psalm 55:22##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
