

Gwendolyn Porter

April 16, 1943 - February 7, 2009

Gwendolyn Porter, daughter of the late Henry and Esther Porter, was born on April 16, 1943 in Baltimore, Md. She departed this life on February 27, 2009 after a brief illness. Gwendolyn was affectionately known to her family as "Lovey". She loved to sing and hug everyone. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She trained at the Baltimore Red Cross as a Nurse's Assistant and also at St. Anne's Church where she received a Certified Nursing Assistant certificate. She held several job positions. The latest being at the Active Adult Daycare Center. Gwendolyn was saved at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church in the late nineties. Gwendolyn had three brothers and one sister who preceded her in death (Charles Coates, Reginald Porter, Ralph Porter and Hilda Spencer). She leaves to mourn two children (Alisa Porter and Tonya Myers), two grandchildren (Sade McClain and Quaron Harris), one sister (Audrey Garrett), and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives. Friends Joyce Louise Roundtree, Delores Howard, Lillie Wynn, The Carter Family, Cynthia Baker and Francise Hardy. I'll always be with you in your mind, heart and spirit. With Love & Hugs, Gwen

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you. Ms Gwen was such a wonderful woman - she had such a loving spirit and spoke fondly of her family. I had the pleasure to work with Ms. Gwen at Almost Family/Active Day. I will be making a donation to the Cancer Society in Ms. Gwendolyn Porter's honor. I am truly sorry for your loss.
