“ My sincere condolences goes out to the family and friends of Mr. Charles. It is truly unfair that death have the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regards. At Acts 24:15, Almighty God promise a "resurrection" into a beautiful "paradise", Luke 23:43. However, one may ask, How do we know that the resurrection will really happen? Well, the Bible's resurrection account gives us a sure hope.---John 11:39-44. May you all find a measure of comfort from the Holy Scriptures.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.” --II Corinthians 1:3, 4 We tend to focus more on the pain of losing someone we love, rather than the joyous occasion of our loved one returning home to our creator, leaving the long suffering of this earth. Ms Charles will be missed, her life will be celebrated, and her legacy will live on in the strength of all our hearts. Know that as you mourn you will be supported and comforted. -Cherise##imported-begin##Cherise Hursey##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family. It brings comfort to know that the bible speaks of our dead loved ones at John 5:28,29. "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." May this scripture also bring you comfort.##imported-begin##Treynel Winston##imported-end##

“ My condolences on the loss of your loved one. May you find comfort in God's word recorded at Revelation 21:4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Imagine a time when all obedient mankind can live forever in true peace and security without the thought of suffering or dying.##imported-begin##Debbie S.##imported-end##

“ The lost of a loved one has an overwhelming impact on all and especially the immediate family. The pain and suffering alone is very hard to bear and no one should ever have to experience such a dark and sad time in life. However it seems to be no escape no matter the cause. I extend my deepest sympathy and thoughts of encouragement from the one who can remove such pain and grieving sorrow from the human family, that one is the Almighty Jehovah God. Jehovah is saddened over how life has turned due to the course of actions of our first parents Adam and Eve. However, because Jehovah is a loving God he has promised the offspring's of Adam and Eve a way out. In the near future He said death will be no more and the things that causes death will be no more according to Rev 21:3-4. This promise of life has always been Jehovah God's purpose for mankind according to Titus 1:2. This is a promise he can't lie about. Hebrews 6: 18 states of Jehovah God, it is impossible for him to lie. That is an encouraging hope. Also for those who suffer with all sorts of illness Isaiah 33:24 says it will come a time no one on the earth will say they are sick and the lame will walk Isaiah 35:6, the blind will see, Isaiah 35:5 and the greatest promise of them all will be when Jesus Christ will call all those in the memorial tombs to come out. Yes our loved ones will be blessed with a resurrection to life right here on earth. John 5:28-29 Yes Jehovah will resurrect those back to life to enjoy everlasting life with all their families and friends Ps 37: 10 states the meek will inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Ps 37:29. It's truly understandable since our heavenly father created the earth for man to live according to Isaiah 45:18. We can truly trust in God's written word because nothing he says will not return without results Isaiah 55:11. So we can dry our eyes due to the tears of sadness but tears of joy will flow when we can once again enjoy the lives of our loved ones temporarily lost to death.##imported-begin##B

“ *My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. “ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
