

Hakim Lateef Hughes

July 7, 1978 - August 5, 2025

Hakim Lateef Hughes was born on July 7, 1978, to James Hughes Sr. and the late Joanne Hughes in Baltimore, Maryland.

Hakim received his education through the Baltimore County Public School system and graduated from Woodlawn High School as a Woodlawn Warrior. Hakim was a star football player, receiving many accolades and recognition for his talents. #33 will always be remembered. After graduating from High School, Hakim attended Catonsville Community College and later pursued studies at Lincoln Tech - Electrical Engineering Trade School. He worked at Construction Union Local #516 and #194 as a Foreman.

Hakim had his first child with his High School Sweetheart, Sevetra Wheeler. While working multiple contracts and balancing being a new Dad, he went to church. Hakim became a member and was baptized at Rising Sun Baptist Church.

Hakim continued his journey through life, meeting the love of his life, Shawna Lyles, in 2001. They later married on April 27, 2005, and from their union, two children were born.

He lived a simple life, enjoying all things "Football" and attending his football games. He was a big movie buff, loved playing video games with his sons, and spending time with all his children. He was thrilled to become a grandfather with his first grandchild on the way.

In the upcoming years, Hakim faced many health battles, and no matter what, he pushed through like a "Warrior."

Preceded in death by his mother, Joanne Hughes; his grandmother Estelle Hart, and Mary Togans Hughes; and his grandfather, Sherman Hughes.

He leaves to honor his memories, his father, James Hughes Sr.; loving wife, Shawna Lyles Hughes; three children, Da'sheem, Kai-yonna, and Kakim Hughes Jr.; one granddaughter soon to come, Lynejah Edwards; three brothers, Angelo R. Berry, James Hughes Jr., and Shamari Hughes; one sister, Brittany Ayanna Hughes; favorite cousin, Sainty Turner; best friend, Sevetra Wheeler, and a host of friends and family.
