

Hampton Cohens Jr.

January 25, 1943 - April 30, 2019

HAMPTON COHEN, JR, was born January 25, 1943, in south Caroline to Mary and Freddie Lee McDowell. He departed this life on April 30, 2019.

"Jr. or Hamp" as he was affectionately known by his family and friends was raised by his step-grandparents, Julia and Hampton Cohen, Sr. He came to New York in 1964 and worked for a period of time at the New York World's Fair. In 1966 he headed back to Baltimore, Maryland, where he stayed.

Hampton married Doris Epps and they enjoyed 28 years together. On November 7, 2007 she departed her earthly home.

He enjoyed and looked forward to worshipping service at New Frontiers of Faith Baptist Church, where he was a member for many years.

Hampton was a personable, kind-hearted, lovable and giving person. He had a friendly smile and made friends wherever he went. He enjoyed spending time with family and friends. Uncle Hamp would stop by and visit with his niece and nephew on weekends.

He leaves to mourn, one sister, Mary Elizabeth McDowell Ray of Queens, New York; nieces, nephews, numerous friend at Kirkwood House; longtime friend, Howard Fitzgerald; and a host of other relatives and friends.
