

Handy B. Hart

January 18, 1934 - May 19, 2016

Handy Brisco Hart, son of the late George W. Hart and Quillie A. Hart was born on January 18, 1934 in Cumberland County, North Carolina. He departed this life on May 19, 2016.

As a child growing up in the south, Handy was dedicated in going to school, work, and church. He received his education with the Cumberland County School System.

Handy left home and moved to Baltimore, Maryland. He began working hard to support his family. He worked at Crown Lumber Company for thirty-five years. In 1986 before retiring, Handy met and married Mamie Mae Elliott. From this union six step-children were added to the family. He loved the Lord with all his heart, mind and soul. He joined and faithfully attended Pleading Holiness Church of Christ and later became the Chairman of the Deacon Board.

He was very faithful, loyal and dedicated for thirty-seven years in serving the Lord. Handy became unable to maintain his race in the service, but he still enjoyed hearing the word of God. If you needed to know something about a scripture, he could tell you where to find it. The Word of God was deeply embedded in his soul.

He leaves to cherish his memory: four daughters, Sharee Hart, Renee Mumford, Robin Elliott and Monica Conigland; five daughters-in-law, Joyce McKethan, Whelhelmina Hart, Sandra Hart, Janet Elliott and Terryce Elliott; seven sons, Charles McKethan, Franklin Hart, Tony Hart, Cory Williams, John Elliott, Angelo Elliott, and Dwayne Elliott; two sons-in-law, Nathan Conigland and Gregory Mumford; two sisters, Chaney McKethan and Etta Hart; four sisters-in-law, Lillie Eden, Ida Bell, Georgianna Williams and Ann Maynor; three brothers-in-law, Alex Maynor, Gary Maynor and Milton McLean; twenty-three grandchildren, thirty-nine great-grandchildren numerous nieces, nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.
