“ My mom shared the room at Good Samaritan with Hannah. In the short time I met her I found her to be a truly loving and caring person. My sincere sympathy to her daughter Michelle as well as the rest of the family. If there is anything I can do please let me know.##imported-begin##Michele Miklewski##imported-end##

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ Sorry to hear about your loss. Though it is a time of grief I found comfort in the Bible at (Isaiah 25:8) "He will actually swallow up death forever". I hope you can find comfort as I have.##imported-begin##Joseph Hill##imported-end##
