

Hapsie D. Wells

April 25, 1933 - September 7, 2009

HAPSIE DORETHA WELLS was born April 25, 1953 in Rocky Mountain, North Carolina to the late George and Cora Wesson. She peacefully fell asleep at home surrounded by loving family. Hapsie came to Baltimore with her family in 1939 where she attended various schools. She was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses. Her great love for Jehovah motivated her to become a full time pioneer. Hapsie loved to teach others about Jehovah and had the joy of seeing many progress to the point of baptism. During her lengthy bout with cancer, she found great comfort in the scripture at Isaiah 41:10, "Do not be afraid, for I am with my right hand of righteousness". She was content and satisfied with her full time devotion to Jehovah God. Hapsie's love for Jehovah, her family, the Christian congregation and her ministry was clearly evident by her encouraging words, even in the last days of her life. Many of her visitors left in tears, but encouraged by her faith in Jehovah and the resurrection hope. Before marrying Edward Wells, Sr., Hapsie shared a loving union, Mowana Russell was born. She married the late Edward Wells, Sr. on August 22, 1953, and out of this union four sons were born, Edward Wells, Jr., Craig Wells and Vincent Wells (she was preceded in death by son Kevin Wells, Sr.) She is survived by: two sisters, Joyce Maultsby and Mary Scott of Baltimore, MD; brother, George Wesson of San Antonio, TX; son-in-law, James Russell, Jr.; daughter-in-law, Geraldine Wells; three brothers-in-law, three sisters-in-law, twelve grandchildren, seventeen great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Hapsie D. Wells

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hello ! We are extending our love and fellow feeling to our dreatest friend Mawana. We know the feeling of lossing a dear Mother in death. One thing is for sure we have each other during this time in life. We have the gift of wonderful memories through out all the years of being with them serving our grand heavenly father Jehovah. It is painful at times however what the future holds out far passes what is happening now, Great tears of Joy and Happiness with out pain and tears of saddness forever. Mawana my dear friend take courageand, keep on the fight for life so we will be there when the resurrection come, John 5 :28, Isa 25:8, and our dreaest Mothers will hears the Call and come on out LOOKING for us to hold them and kiss them with our arms around them ,singing, "PRAISE JEHOVAh God forever. Much love, Lillian, Your friend forever [1/31/10]##imported-begin##Crosby's/Mobley's##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hello ! Well's ! I am so grateful to have known Sister Hapsie Wells. We have been friends for over 40 years . The kingdom hope gave her a real reason to fight to keep living however sin from our frist parents brought death on, Romans.5:12. In the future I am looking forward to see the many dead come to life again one among many my dear friend Hapsie in the resurrection free from sickness ,pain and sorrow. Among many bible scriptures Hapsie love was Isa.25:8,Luke 23:43,Prov.3:5-6,Rev.21:3-5 etc.It was great to see her one and only dauther give so much of her life and time loving and careing for her one and only mother to the end for now because better things are coming, Ps.145:16. May the gift of memories and shared times with our Hapsie help on the journey of life now and for ever more. Your dear friends, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that Almighty God Jehovah will 'actually swallow up death forever, and wipe the tears from all faces by means of the resurrection (Isiah 25:8).##imported-begin##A. Jackson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM