“ To the Family: Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Our family finds much comfort from the Bible. One such consoling verse is Daniel 12:2- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." May you find comfort in this divinely inspired promise.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My sincere sympathy to your family. May God's promise at 1 Cor. 15:26, to remove our enemy death bring you comfort. Also, Isa. 26:19 teaches the dead will live again, they will rise up." I'm sure you would agree the hope of the resurrection is very encouraging especially when we experience the loss of a loved one. May you find comfort in God's promises.###imported-begin###McNeil###imported-end##

“Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the friends & family of Mr. Alexander, please accept my heartfelt sympathy for your great loss. No doubt this most difficult times can prove painful and extremely hard to deal with. Please be assured that our loving Heavenly Father knows your pain and wants you to be comforted. He too, lost someone in death and that was his son, Jesus. With his power of Holy Spirit, He raised his son up and brought him back to heaven from which he came. We can only imagine how much joy this brought Almighty God; being reunited with his son again. We have a promise from God that we will welcome our loved ones back as well, and we don't have to die in order to see them again. God's word tells us at Isaiah 26:19, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust. How encouraging this promise is to know that soon, that void WILL be filled and we will truly enjoy the company of those death has taken from us. Afterward, Isaiah 25:8 promises, "He will swallow up death forever..." Death will be no more. I hope you can find comfort in these verses. Please compare these wonderful promises to your copy of the bible and see firsthand. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##
