

Harmon Franklin Johnson,

June 7, 1930 - November 14, 2009

Harmon Franklin Johnson, Sr. 79, departed this life on Saturday, November 14, 2009 at Chippenham Hospital with his devoted wife by his side. He was born June 7, 1930 in New Kent County to James Logan Johnson and Arthenia Johnson. After graduating from New Kent Training School in 1942, he served as a military police officer in the United States Air Force until 1952. After meeting the love of his life, he decided that marrying her would make him the happiest man in the world. On November 11, 1961, he and Ethel P. Johnson were married. To this union, two children, Honoria Felicia and Franklin Harmon, Jr. were born. Harmon was a man of great courage and strength, who shared his joy of living with his family, friends and community. He shared a closeness and special bond with his children and grandchildren that was evident to all. He was a member of Cedar Grove Baptist Church and a faithful and dedicated son, husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, great-great-grandfather, and most of all friend. Harmon was an avid sport fan, really enjoying baseball and boxing. He loved to keep himself busy by upholstering furniture and his love of gardening. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Antoinette Wallace; son, Cornell Jesse Russell; his parents, James Logan Johnson and Arthenia Johnson; sisters, Bessie Otey, Beatrice Otey, Lorene Macon and Alva Carter; and his brothers, James Johnson and Anthony Johnson. Harmon leaves to cherish his fond memories his devoted wife, Ethel P. Johnson of Providence Forge; daughter Honoria Felicia Jackson (Allen) of Colonial Heights; son, Franklin Harmon Johnson, Jr. (Tammy) of Highland Springs; six grandchildren, Demetrick Jackson, Aliyah Jackson, Briana Johnson, James Logan Johnson, Shaunda Jefferson and Jesse Jamar Russell; four great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren; brother-in-law, James Macon of Providence Forge; sisters-in-law, Paige Bivins and Searina Saunders (Harry), all of Suffolk; a devoted niece, Wanda B. Macon of Providence Forge, and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends

“ *To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. This is a sorrow that God promises will one day be no more (Rev 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort you in all your tribulations." (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4)###imported-begin##Gwen

“ I would like to express my sympathy to the Johnson family. The loss of a dearly loved one can result in deep sorrow and pain, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. And Daniel 12:2 encourages with the hope of a resurrection, stating: "Many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and the truth found in God's Word comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
