

Harold E. Conway

June 30, 1936 - November 17, 2016

Harold Emerson Conway, Sr. was born on June 30, 1936 in Rhodesdale, Maryland to the late Susie and Arthur Conway, Sr. He departed this life on November 17, 2016. He was the tenth of fourteen children.

He attended the public schools of Dorchester County, Maryland on the Eastern Shore and graduated from Mace's Lane High School. Following his service in the United States Army, he moved to Baltimore where he met the love of his life, Betty Ann Jones. They were united with their children, Harold E. Conway, Jr. and Darlene Jones.

Harold was employed by the Baltimore Installation Company and Baltimore City Public Schools.

He enjoyed watching and playing sports including football, baseball and basketball. In his earlier years, he enjoyed playing flag football. A jovial person, he enjoyed attending Summer Family reunions and Thanksgiving dinners with his family.

Harold attended Blessed Trinity Church of Deliverance with his wife and was a founding member of Refuge of Love Ministries, Inc. He enjoyed prayer and bible studies.

He was preceded in death by his son, Harold E. Conway, Jr. and grandson, Tory D Burnett.

He leaves wonderful memories and good times to be cherished by his wife of fifty-four years, Betty Conway; his daughter, Darlene Jones; Grandchildren: Teona Myers, Jessica Conway and Justine Conway; Great grandchildren: Breona Harris, Tori Diamond Burnett, Tori Venson, Makaylah Smith and Kenleigh Miller; Brothers: Vernon Conway Sr. and Ronald Conway; Sisters: Alma Davis, Irene (James) Puryear, Elizabeth (Nathaniel) Jackson, Dorothy (Orizie) Farrare, Thelma Gaddy, Gloria (Charles) Stewart and Carolyn (Jacob) Green; Sisters-in-law: Bertie Conway, Margaret Conway and Lena Fields; Brothers-in-law: Melvin Jones and Clayton Crowder; and a host of nieces nephews , cousins and friends.
