

Harold E. Conway

April 7, 1959 - January 4, 2004

In the quietness of the early morning, God our Father, dispatched an angel to Bon Secour Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland and brought unto himself our beloved Sputney who slipped away from this life and crossed over to a better place at 10:20 a.m. on Sunday, January 4, 2004. Sputney was born on April 7, 1959 to Harold Emerson Conway Sr. and the late Lucille Blanding, and survived by his stepmother, Betty Conway. Sputney received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Two daughters, Justine Conway and Jessica Conway; sister, Darlene Jones and Brother, George Blanding, survive Sputney. A host of cousins, nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts, friends and a devoted friend Irene Renee Bell. He was known to all by the nickname of Sputney. He was a very loving and fun person. He loved music and watching television, however, sports were his favorite. Even though our hearts are deeply saddened, we rejoice give thanks and praise to God for the time he gave him in this life.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
