

Harold Edward Douglass

October 5, 1940 - April 21, 2002

Suddenly on April 21, 2002, Harold Edward Douglass, Sr. (BIG CHARM) was called 'HOME' to rest eternally. Son of Calon G. Douglass and the late Howard Hebron, was born October 5, 1940, Baltimore, Maryland. Before serious health problems developed, BIG CHARM held employment as an automobile mechanic, truck driver; his last job was being an apprentice engraver. Earlier years, BIG CHARM enjoyed the sport of being a race car driver; was currently in partnership with son in the building/rebuilding of son's racing car. These later years he had become a part of the cheering crowd. His last day on this earth was spent at the car racetrack. In other leisure times, he assembled small-scale model cars, also book coloring. Many hours spent watching TV and movies. Harold leaves to cherish his memory: mother, Calon G. Douglass; sister, Magalene (Maggie) Brown; son, Harold E. Douglass, Jr. (Little Charm); daughter, Nichelle D. Douglass; grandchildren, Darryl, Antonio and Tearoshay (Shay-Shay); aunt. Alice Byrd; nieces, nephew, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
