

Harold L. Queen

November 3, 1945 - November 13, 2008

HAROLD LLOYD THOMAS QUEEN, son of the late Genevieve Elizabeth Queen and Earl Preston Thomas, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on November 3, 1945. The Lord called him for eternal rest on November 13, 2008. Harold received his formal education in Baltimore City. He was employed by the Baltimore City Housing Department and McDermott Roofing Company. He also served in the armed forces Vietnam War and was honorably discharged in 1969. Known affectionately as “Hump” by family and friends, he touched the lives of those who knew him with his warm smile and heart of compassion. He enjoyed spending time with his family, watching football, dancing and listening to the “oldies but goodies”. He was well known for his style of dress. Harold is preceded in death by his brother Harry “Freddie” Hughes. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Jennifer; daughter, Alita; two sons, Harold, Jr. and Robert; five grandsons and one granddaughter; two brothers, Ernest Queen and Robert Queen; four sisters, Delores Keys, Goldie Wood, Grace Thomas Queen and Harriett Hughes; two sister-in-law, Patricia Queen and Judy Queen; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the Queen family, My deepest sympathy in the loss of your brother. May God comfort you in this time of bereavement. May Harold be resting in peace and surrounding by God's love. As we celebrate his homecoming, may our tears soften with the wonderful memories he has left behind. Remembering his smile and laughter we shared can often lessen our grief. God bless!###imported-begin##DIANE HARRIS###imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". Also, 1 Corinthians 15:26 rightly calls death our enemy and tells us that death will be destroyed. May you receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and the wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
