

Harold Lee Graham

November 23, 1955 - June 12, 2006

HAROLD “Bubba Dee” GRAHAM was born November 23, 1955 to his now departed father and surviving mother, Beverly A. Wright. He was the first of three sons born in Richmond, Virginia where he was raised. He was educated in the Richmond Public School system where he went on to polish his skills for automotive repair. Bubba and his tools were inseparable. If it could be fixed, he could fix it. He just recently purchased a pickup that had problems with the gearshift on the steering column. What did he do? Surely the same thing you would have done. He purchased a manual gear shift, read the instructions that night and installed the gear shift, in the floor. By high noon, he was riding high. Bubba was a father, a grandfather, a brother and a friend to many. He received Christ and was water baptized at the Richmond Christian Center. He departed this life for “Glory” on June 12, 2006. He was preceded in death by his son, Harold L. Woolridge. He leaves to cherish his memory his daughter, Teecy Davis (Dean); four grandchildren, Deonce and Devonce Davis, Dashawn Brown and Harold L. Woolridge Jr., his mother, Beverly A. Wright; two brothers, Ernest Wright (Brenda) and Keith Wright; a devoted cousin, Melvin “Junnie” Robinson; a devoted friend, Belinda Pringle; and a host of other relatives and friends. He has entered into his resting place HAPPY FATHER’S DAY MR. HAROLD LEE GRAHAM.

“ To the family and friends, please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. Please read and find comfort in Psalms 34:18, John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:3,4. God promises to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these scriptures bring you strength and encouragement during your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
